

SKILLBRIDGE

Background: SkillBridge is designed to provide apprenticeship, internship, and on-the-job training opportunities to help separating military members gain new skills to increase opportunities for post-separation civilian employment. The SkillBridge desired outcomes are to reduce veteran unemployment and under-employment while improving employment opportunities and the financial sustainment of veterans and their families.

Commanders

QUESTIONS ON CHANGES EFFECTIVE 1 OCT 21

Q1: How do these changes benefit Dept of the AF (DAF) members?

A1: The new changes (integrating DoD-approved providers in AFVEC, eliminating DAF provider reviews, eliminating paper checklists, adding DoD-required actions) eliminates work making the application process easier/faster for DAF members.

Q2: How do these changes affect members applying for a SkillBridge program on 30 Sep 21 or earlier?

A2: For applications submitted in AFVEC on 30 Sep 21 or earlier, Airmen & Guardians may continue to use DAF- or Sister Service-approved providers. Members who prefer to use the new streamlined process may cancel their existing SkillBridge application and re-submit one via the new process on 1 Oct 21.

Q3: How do these changes affect members applying for a SkillBridge program on 1 Oct 21 or later?

A3: For SkillBridge applications submitted in AFVEC on 1 Oct 21 or later, members will use DoD-approved providers or previously approved Joint Base cohort programs only.

Q4: Are DAF or Sister Service-approved providers required to be DoD-approved by 1 Oct 21?

A4: No. Applications submitted in AFVEC on 30 Sep 21 or earlier, may continue to be processed with DAF or Sister Service-approved providers. Starting 1 Oct 21, DAF members may request to participate with DoD-approved providers and Joint Base-approved cohort programs only. Previously approved DAF and Sister Service providers that want to continue hosting Airmen & Guardians, along with new companies/agencies that want to offer a program to an individual member, must obtain DoD approval and Memorandum of Understanding.

Q5: How can a company/agency become a DoD provider?

A5: They can submit a request at <https://dodskillbridge.usalearning.gov/industry-employers.htm>.

Q6: How long does it take DoD to approve a new provider?

A6: Typically, it takes 60 to 90 days for the DoD to review and approve a new provider. However, if approval is needed sooner to accommodate a member's SkillBridge program, the company/agency (or the member) can request an elevated priority to accommodate a quicker turnaround at the following link: <https://dodskillbridge.usalearning.gov/contacts.htm>

- * Provide job training and career-development experience to acquire employment skills, knowledge, or abilities to assist with securing a civilian job

Q10: Do commanders have to approve what is requested?

A10: No. Commanders may disapprove or modify SkillBridge requests as needed (i.e., shorter length, part- vs full-time, virtual vs in person) to account for mission requirements and member's needs.

Q11: Is there a recommended length of time for SkillBridge training programs?

A11: The recommended length is less than 120 days. Concurrent PTDY for relocation is not authorized; however, terminal leave may be used consecutively with SkillBridge.

Q12: Can I complete a SkillBridge program to start my own business/franchise, or work for my family's business?

A12: No, these career options do not meet the DoD SkillBridge Program intent to provide a high probability of post-service employment. The Transition Assistance Program has a specific track (curriculum) for members who want to pursue this goal.
