CareerSource Okaloosa Walton Update

Kelly Jordan shared that throughout all of the challenges in 2020, CareerSource Okaloosa Walton staff has supported our mission. She briefed the group with the following numbers for January 1, 2020-December 31, 2020.

CareerSource Okaloosa Walton provided 13,349 services to 2,626 individuals and 8679 services to 902 businesses in our community. 5221 jobs were posted in Employ Florida in 2020 and 630 job seekers obtained employment.

Outreach Plan/Hiring Events – Sarah Ambriz gave an update on the CSOW CARES Awareness Campaign. CSOW partnered with Moore Communication to increase awareness for CareerSource and its services for career seekers, targeting unemployment an under employed residents in impacted by COVID-19. The results of the campaign was 3376 site visits and 1972 new users. Sarah also shared Out of state recruitment plans with the council. CareerSource has a campaign with more communications to provide outreach through targeted social media to recruit high skilled professionals to relocate to our area the kickoff is set for the end of February.

Veterans/Military Spouse Program – Terry Cowan provided a brief update on the DoD Skillbridge program. The program assists active duty transitioning service members to the Civilian world by providing them internships while still in the military. We currently have 12 members interning in local businesses and 40 members in the pipeline . We are continuing to recruit community businesses to offer internship opportunities.   Terry also shared that the Military Spouse Program is successfully serving spouses virtually. The MS team had 101 hires in 2020.

Dr. Azzaretto adjourned the meeting at 9:59 a.m.
