Jack informed the group that the state approved RDOL is usually published late February to early March. This year (As it was last year), it was not published until May 2021.

There was a total of 112 occupations on the 2021-2022 Demand Occupation List, compared to the 98 occupations on the 2020-2021 Demand Occupation List. There were 19 new occupations added to the 2021-2022 Demand Occupation List.

Will Miles provided the list of occupations that had been removed and sent it to the training providers for review. At the request of University of West Florida, two of those occupations are being recommended to be added back to the RDOL for 2021-2022.

Will informed the council that both programs meet all the requirements to be added to the RDOL. And, Jack Azzaretto presented Action Items which were reviewed and recommended by the CareerSource Leadership Team for presentation to the BCC approval. The Regional Demand Occupation List and Eligible Training Providers Lists are the heart of our services enabling us to provide training to our customers.
